

1. The first part of the document is a header section containing the title "THE EFFECTS OF THE 1990S REFORMS ON THE CHINESE ECONOMY" and the author's name "JIANHONG ZHANG".

2. The second part is the abstract, which states: "This paper examines the effects of the 1990s reforms on the Chinese economy. The results show that the reforms have led to a significant increase in GDP growth, but have also led to a decline in the growth rate of the manufacturing sector. The growth rate of the services sector has increased, but the growth rate of the agricultural sector has declined. The results suggest that the reforms have led to a shift in the structure of the Chinese economy, with a move from agriculture to manufacturing and services."

3. The third part is the introduction, which discusses the background of the reforms and the objectives of the study.

4. The fourth part is the methodology, which describes the data sources and the econometric models used in the study.

5. The fifth part is the results, which presents the findings of the study.

6. The sixth part is the conclusion, which summarizes the main findings and provides some policy recommendations.

7. The seventh part is the references, which lists the sources used in the study.

8. The eighth part is the appendix, which contains additional data and results.

9. The ninth part is the index, which provides a list of the topics covered in the document.

10. The tenth part is the endnotes, which provide additional information on the study.
